

Manufacturing Better Lenses

The design of eyeglass lenses, especially for progressive prescriptions, is a part of mathematics which involves geometry, materials science, and partial differential equations in a surprising way. It is an active area of research that affects people's lives every day (especially those of us over forty).

Photograph courtesy of Visioncoat, Inc.

The Mathematical Moments program promotes appreciation and understanding of the role mathematics plays in science, nature, technology, and human culture.